
HOUSE SUMMARY

Amends provisions relating to the powers of the State Board of Education, the Department of Education, and the boards of trustees of community colleges to provide for the development and administration of student assessment tests with respect to eligibility for an associate of arts degree and admission to upper division programs.