

By Senator Kiser

SENATE SUMMARY

Provides an exception to the definition of “rule” under the Administrative Procedure Act for agency action that alters established annual harvest limits for saltwater fishing if the procedure for altering such limits is set out by rule of the Marine Fisheries Commission, provided the action is adequately noticed in the area affected.