

2013 SUMMARY OF AMENDMENTS TO CHAPTER 120

Chapter 2013-14, Laws of Florida, a reviser's bill, amended various sections of Chapter 120 to substitute the term "Florida Administrative Register" for the term "Florida Administrative Weekly" throughout the Florida Statutes.

Effective date: 60 days after adjournment sine die (July 2, 2013).

Chapter 2013-15, Laws of Florida, a reviser's bill, amended paragraph 120.54(3)(b) to change a reference to the Small Business Regulatory Advisory Council to the rules ombudsman in the Executive Office of the Governor. The chapter law also amended paragraph 120.745(5)(a) to clarify that the entity referred to is the rules ombudsman in the Executive Office of the Governor.

Effective date: 60 days after adjournment sine die (July 2, 2013).

Chapter 2013-18, Laws of Florida, a reviser's bill, amended subsections 120.65(6) and (8) to remove duplicative, redundant, or unused rulemaking authority of the Division of Administrative Hearings.

Effective date: 60 days after adjournment sine die (July 2, 2013).

Chapter 2013-35, Laws of Florida, amended paragraph 120.81(1)(c) to correct cross-references relating to education.

Effective date: Upon becoming a law (April 29, 2013).

Chapter 2013-36, Laws of Florida, reenacted subsection 120.665(1) to incorporate the amendment to section 112.3143 relating to public officers.

Effective date: Upon becoming a law (May 1, 2013).

Chapter 2013-173, Laws of Florida, amended subsection 120.52(1), the definition of "agency," to exclude any transportation authority or commission under chapters 343 or 349.

Effective date: July 1, 2013.

Chapter 2013-183, Laws of Florida, amended subsection 120.541(4), as amended by chapter 2011-222, and subsection 120.80(17) to correct cross-references relating to the Florida Fire Prevention Code.

Effective date: July 1, 2013.